sessions. The similarities in each account are uncanny. The Higher Selves and Spirit Guides of these clients explained how those who were a vibrational match would ascend to an ethereal realm while those who still had 3rd dimensional lessons to learn would remain in this world to participate in a slow evolution. My personal QHHT sessions, as well as those I have facilitated for my clients, have elaborated on her prophecy.

Our Higher Selves explained how we are at the same axis point on the spiral of time as the Fall of Atlantis. During this juncture in the past, people in power were misusing technology, and the Earth corrected the imbalance by flood. One could ask themselves if the same could be true today with advancements/abuses of artificial intelligence, mainstream media, and pharmaceutical practices, to name a few.

In Matthew 3:12, John the Baptist speaks of Jesus saying, “He will clear His threshing floor, gathering his wheat into the barn, and burning up the chaff with unquenchable fire.” Most clients who have progressed into the future see the Earth black and charred by flames. When guided further ahead, they see the entire planet lush and green like a Garden of Eden.

When asked to zoom in and examine life on the New Earth, clients have seen two types of beings—one is ethereal and the other is physical. The ethereal are made of light. They can fly (or teleport) and are not bound to the Earth, there is no need for them to eat, they can create or change anything with a thought, and they are invisible to the physical hominids but can be seen by a gifted few. They are much like what we think of as Spirit Guides. Their job is to lend their energy to the Earth and her inhabitants and to guide

A common theme of separation has woven its way through the lives of my clients this past year. In addition to the loss of relationships, the pandemic has created even more isolation. This phenomenon was foretold to me in a hypnosis session of mine in 2018. I was shown a metaphor comparing our souls to small sticks and the Earth to a giant log. This log was covered in glue, and the sticks were cast onto it, fusing together in a crisscrossed, jumbled heap of karmic ties.

My guides said that, now, this glue is beginning to crack and the sticks are breaking loose; however, it is up to each soul to free him or herself completely. We must uncross ourselves from these karmic relationships and learn to stand alone. Once all sticks are free standing and whole within themselves, we will come back together in a nice, neat bundle and ascend. I believe this is the existential purpose of the solitude we have all been experiencing.

Dolores Cannon—the founder of the Quantum Healing Hypnosis Technique that I practice—foretold of a split in realities in her book, The Three Waves of Volunteers and the New Earth. Her thousands of clients were shown a future probability during their hypnosis the physical beings in evolution.

The other group are a very innocent but genetically evolved race of humans. They have no need to wear clothing, and they eat mostly fruit. There is no death or need to kill for sustenance. These beings choose when it is time to leave their bodies, and they lead a very light-hearted, easygoing life of singing, dancing, feasting, and socializing.

While I was under hypnosis, my Guides explained how these two beings are the result of the split in realities. They said that many souls incarnate right before a Shift and that is why there are so many people on the planet right now. This is because the Shift is like an initiation into the next school level. For younger souls (or souls who haven't spent many lives on Earth), the Shift is like Kindergarten Graduation, and they will start at grade one after the Event.

For older souls who have been in this school since the Fall of Atlantis, it is Eighth Grade Graduation. They will bump up a Dimension and become guides for the younger souls. The beings that are our Spirit Guides/Ancestors right now will be having High School Graduation and will bump up a Dimension to college level. The beings above them will go on to Grad School, etc. It is a pyramid of evolution that all will be climbing.

Regardless of the grade level, it will all be alright, as this is just the natural order of things. This School of Earth is designed for soul evolution; however, there are things we can do to assist in the process. During this time, soul family members will be emerging to help us remember our true identities. It is pertinent to release the people who are no longer a vibrational match so that our soul tribes can form. Those who are meant to be with us will bring out the best in us and the energy will flow naturally, while karmic relationships will create chaos and disharmony in our lives.

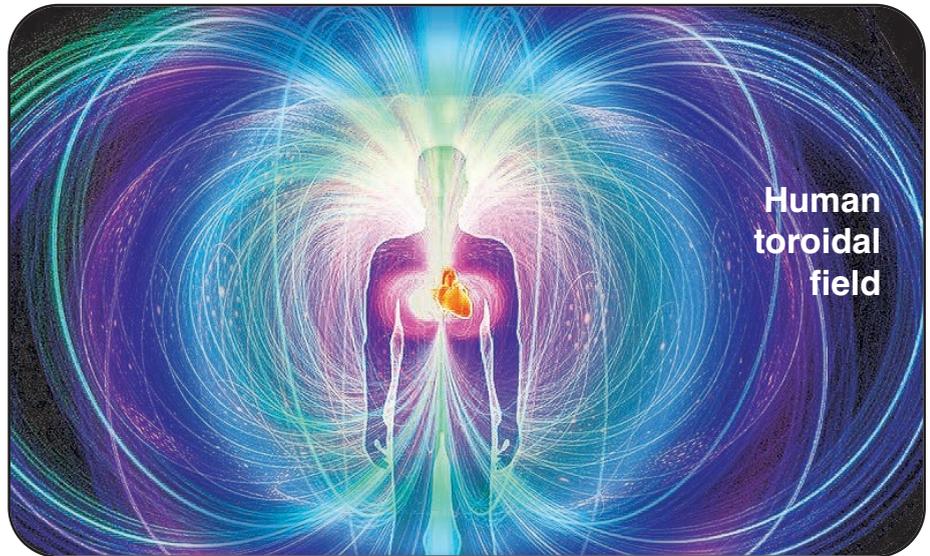

It is important to recognize the difference and notice how your body responds when in the presence of others. Do you feel comfortable and "at home," or do you feel uneasy and guarded? This simple practice will give you a great deal of insight.

It is also important to uncover our most authentic selves and strive for our highest potential during this time. What are your truest passions? What are your life-time goals—not financial or accumulative, but on a soul level? What legacy do you wish to leave behind, or what change do you wish to create in the world? By turning our focus inward, we have begun to do our soul work. As within, so without; therefore, we are changing our external reality as we heal and grow. So, find the courage to follow your heart's desires and go for it now!

There are daily exercises we can all do to make the transition smoother:

1) ACTIVATE YOUR LIGHT BODY: While sitting or standing, bring light down from Source (I like to see it as a blindingly bright, infinitely huge sun) and into the top of your head. Keep breathing it all the way down the body, filling every cell with light, out the bottoms of the feet, and into the Earth. Then pull the light back up around the body and back down through the top of the head. This is creating a flowing toroidal field within and around the body. Keep breathing and expand the field out as far as you feel comfortable.

2) ASK FOR GUIDANCE: Call upon your Ancestors/Spirit Guides/Angels of the Light to assist you. Ask them to help you release anything that does not serve your greatest and highest potential. Ask them to assist you in aligning with your Divine purpose, your soul tribe, and the Greatest and Highest timeline. Finally, request that you hear them clearly and interpret their messages correctly. Give thanks.

3) FILTER CHOICES THROUGH SPIRIT: Before adopting a strict belief about how things are or how they should be, remember that Dark forces are at play during this time as well. The false light can be very convincing by pulling at our heart strings. Confusion is rampant and, unfortunately, media only exacerbates this. Take time away from technology to reconnect. Before making any big choices, ask yourself if the narrative influencing your decision is generated by humans in power or by Spirit? Follow Spirit always!
