

We just came back from a road trip presenting our crystal lights, and we noticed people were quite open to connect with any feel-good energies Mother Earth could offer. It felt like silent cries coming from so many visitors at these shows. During those long, winter months, there was so much draining energy in the media—and on top of it all, the rising cost of living! I think a lot of individuals finally hit rock bottom with their emotions.

Some stopped at our booth to ask if this therapy could help to lift their spirit and bring them back to the path of lightness. We were so busy that we had waiting lines of session seekers. The outcomes were always moving. A session on the Crystal Light Healing Bed lifted shadows, brought faith, trust, and healing frequencies felt by many at a much higher level than ever before. It was as if great comfort sprouted from their hearts. By the end of a session, their entire body felt harmonized. It was like a gift from the Universe. Everyone received what they needed the most—a true “massage for the soul.”

Now, summer is finally here! Some will start to connect with Mother Earth more frequently. Others will awaken from their hibernation in 3-dimensionality. Plus, we are in the midst of a great portal of intense, transforming light, and each of us is receiving that light now. It’s as if nature couldn’t get any better. As we allow the essence of this vibration to permeate us into the core of Gaia, it will balance and harmonize us in the most wonderful way. When we’re balanced, we function and feel better. We also make better choices—ones that are kind to ourselves, to others, and to our Earth.

Energy workers from as far away as the east coast have inquired about our off-grid modalities. This is due to the latest trends in Europe, which are now catching on in the U.S. — forest bathing, river meditation, wilderness Reiki, ancestral healing, and intuitive guidance through immersion in nature. Can you imagine a relaxation session next to a babbling brook, dragonflies sparkling, and crickets chirping, while immersed under healing, Lemurian crystal lights? ■

QuantumPoint now offers an off-grid ability to switch from household current to a 12-volt battery, or 100-watt solar panels. This means you can take the crystal lights into the most healing locales in nature. Now is the time to get back to nature and bond with Mother Earth!
