

CAN TRANSFORM THIS WORLD

Throughout history, there have been spiritual teachers and guides who take birth on the planet to steer humanity towards love, harmony, and peace. Maitreya Dadashreeji is a spiritual transformation pioneer, global humanitarian, spiritual teacher, and Divine Friend whose purpose is to help transform the suffering mind into a harmonious Divine Mind. He founded Maitribodh Parivaar, a global family of friends, with a vision to spread the message of one world, one family. As we enter Advent and prepare for Christmas, Maitreya Dadashreeji shares a special reminder with all our readers about Jesus's message for the world. Maitreya Dadashreeji says:

“Without love, we cannot transform anyone. Love is the key to transforming the human mind. And how can we teach love and not talk about Jesus Christ? Love is Jesus and Jesus is Love. This is the best time for transformation, wherein Love and Jesus are together. Jesus blessed this Earth once with His physical presence. He showered Grace on all the children of God. He did not judge anyone but gave the message of love to everyone equally. So, when you want to experience love within, you just need to simply connect with Jesus. And how do we do it? How do we connect with Jesus? Just by calling out for Him once with an open heart. Just say ‘yes’ to Jesus, and He is there. He’s there to guide you, to help you.

One of the soul-transforming teachings He gave the world - is to Love everyone. Love everyone around you. Just express your heart, and let others also experience love, unconditional love. And if you see it well, you will know that this is precisely what the world needs. Unconditional Divine Love. Your problems, your worries will cease to exist, just by embracing the Love of the Divine.

*My only request to all those devotees of Jesus, those who truly understand who Jesus is: Do not confine Jesus in any particular institution or religion. He spoke about unconditional love. He loved everyone irrespective of one's faith and skin. Then why are we dividing Jesus into groups and countries? Why can't we allow everyone to experience Jesus? He is for everyone. His love is for everyone. Let every soul get that opportunity to experience the pure, divine, unconditional Love of Jesus. And why I'm saying this is because only love can heal this world. Only love can transform this world. Invite Jesus in your life. Talk to Him. Pray for Humanity.

He will be there. He was there throughout your life all the time. Inside you, outside you, in front of you, behind you. Everywhere. Just connect with Him and experience the shift within. How love transforms you and through you, how people experience transformation. Through this way only, we can see a better world, a happy world. So today is the day. Just express yourself to Jesus. He is there with you. I am there with you in this transition phase, so that all of you successfully pass through
