Welcome to 2024! So much hope for mankind's transformation if we can stay on paths of peace and love. So much at stake. Have the stakes ever been higher for the planet, for the hot spots around the planet, and for our own America?

There's a legendary blind soothsayer from Bulgaria named Baba Vanga. Although she has passed away, she predicted events far into the future. For 2024, she has predicted economic crises (we're kinda expecting that...), weather troubles (that too...), cyber attacks and other types of attacks in places around the world (God help us...).

On a more positive note, she foresaw medical breakthroughs including new treatments for Alzheimer's and cancer and major technological breakthroughs in quantum computing. She did NOT mention the all-important U.S. elections at the end of this year. (All eyes are already on that one.) And she did mention troubles for Russia...

How to navigate all this? Keep reading our magazine as we bring you resources and tips to stay healthy, wealthy and wise. Keep the eagle's perspective. Fly high above the turmoil in your meditations and prayers, as we pray for safety and peace for all in the coming year!

—ENJOY!
