Testing—*Your
Body's Energy
Holds the Answers!

"I finally feel like someone listened to my body. The scan showed food sensitivities I never suspected, and the tincture helped me feel calmer and more balanced."

Sometimes symptoms linger even when lab results look “normal.” Bioenergetic testing offers a fresh perspective by exploring your body’s energetic signals through painless, handheld electrodes. This approach can highlight hidden stress patterns and provide a personalized plan for support.

What Is Bioresonance Testing?

Your body is constantly communicating—through sleep, digestion, cravings, emotions, and energy levels. Bioresonance testing is a non-invasive way to “tune in” to those signals. Using a small DNA sample (hair, saliva, or nails), the technology reads your energetic blueprint and identifies areas of stress or imbalance that may not appear in standard lab work.

What Insights Can It Provide?

A scan may highlight energetic patterns related to:

- ▲ Detox and elimination pathways
- ▲ Hormonal balance
- ▲ Gut and digestive health
- ▲ Emotional imprints
- ▲ Mineral and nutrient status
- ▲ Organ system function
- ▲ Immune resilience

How It Works Virtually

Because your DNA carries your complete energetic code, a simple sample is all that’s needed. Once scanned, the device interprets your frequency patterns remotely—no needles, no office visit, just energetic data.

Gentle Frequency Support

After your scan, corrective frequencies are imprinted into a water/alcohol solution, creating a personalized tincture. Think of it as an energetic reset designed to support balance in mind, body, and spirit. Since bioresonance works with energy rather than chemicals, many people choose it when seeking gentle, non-chemical options.

Why People Explore Bioresonance

- ▲ Offers clarity into energetic stress patterns
- ▲ Helps explain why you may feel inflamed, tired, bloated, or emotionally stuck
- ▲ Provides a custom energetic tincture tailored to your scan
- ▲ Available both in-person and virtually, with a complete package: scan, tincture, and video walk-through

Top 5 Panels Available

- 1) Food Sensitivity Profile
- 2) Gut & Digestive Health

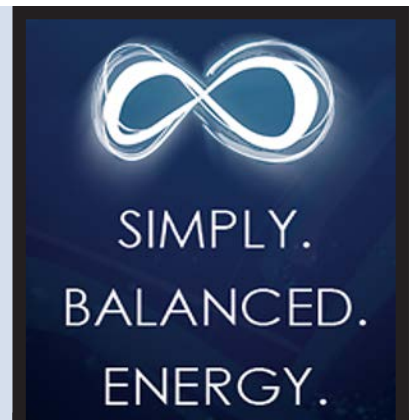

- 3) Hormonal Balance
- 4) Emotional Stressors
- 5) Immune Susceptibility

Why Choose Bioresonance Testing?

- ▲ Non-invasive, painless, and suitable for all ages
- ▲ Customized scans tailored to your unique needs
- ▲ Insight into patterns when traditional testing feels incomplete ■

Disclaimer: Bioresonance testing is not a medical test, diagnosis, or treatment. It has not been evaluated by the FDA and is intended for wellness and educational purposes only.

I can provide scans both virtually or in-person in Bozeman or Helena. Your personalized tincture(s) can be mailed to you immediately.
